Locality Support Worker – Learning Disabilities

APPLY NOW

Description

Are you a caring, positive, and patient person who wants to make a real difference in people's lives? If so, we'd love to hear from you!

We have an exciting opportunity to join our team supporting individuals across three supported living houses in Flintshire. This role offers fantastic variety—no two days will be the same.

You will have a 40-hour weekly contract.

About the Role

- Work across three different houses, gaining varied experience and building meaningful relationships.
- Receive a monthly rota, with shifts and locations tailored to the needs of each home.
- Support people both at home and out in the community, helping them achieve their personal goals.
- Deliver person-centred support that promotes independence and wellbeing.

What We're Looking For

- A positive, compassionate, and reliable individual
- A full UK driving licence (essential)
- This position requires a female support worker
- Experience with learning disabilities is helpful but not essential—full training is provided.

Pay Rates

- Training / Basic – £13.45 per hour
- Level 2 Adult Social Care – £13.85 per hour
- Level 3 Adult Social Care – £14.50 per hour
- Sleep In – £8.21 per hour
- Waking Night – £15.50 per hour

Why Join Us?

- A local charity with a strong focus on person-centred care
- Recognised as a Platinum Investor in People
- Rated "Excellent" in all areas in our most recent CIW inspection
- Full induction, ongoing training, and support to help you succeed
